

When completed this form should be sent to: Feathered World, 5 Winckley Street, Preston PR1 2AA
Tel/Fax: 0870 41 78910 E-mail Books@winckley.co.uk

Book title	No	Cost each	UK Post each	Total cost
INTERNATIONAL POULTRY STANDARDS By Dr. Joseph Batty Covers the major breeds of poultry throughout the world. Well illustrated with detailed descriptions of each breed. Bars, mottles, spangles, splashes included as well as genetics. Show Standards in concise and pictorial form. Shows how to analyse all essentials. Large format, 250 pages hard back. Illustrated in black and white and colour.		£38.00	£5.45
POULTRY COLOUR GUIDE By Dr. Joseph Batty New edition first published in 1975. Fine coloured illustrations by Charles Francis, plus additional pictures. 80 pages A4 size showing in detail various breeds, large and bantams and includes ducks, geese, turkeys and guinea fowl		£18.00	£1.30
COLOUR INHERITANCE IN SMALL LIVESTOCK By Roy Robinson NDR FIBiol An in-depth study of genetics, including elementary heredity. The purpose of this book is to provide a work-a-day guide to the inheritance of coat colour in small livestock. Author Roy Robinson was one of the leading authorities on genetics in the UK and his books are widely read both by the serious student and the enthusiastic amateur. Paperback. 192 pages. Black and white line drawings and diagrams		£7.00	£0.83
OLD ENGLISH GAME COLOUR GUIDE By Dr. J Batty Newcomers to the Fancy often find the range of colour bewildering. Principal colours are demonstrated from a variety of sources paintings and photographs each bird is depicted and gets down to the essentials of colour in both Large and Bantams. 128 pages hard back.		£25.00	£2.00
EXHIBITION &amp; FLYING PIGEONS By Joseph Batty Examining the world of pigeons, this book touches on fancy pigeons and then covers the main breeds of fancy and performing pigeons. It also deals with Pigeon Lofts, Breeding and Rearing, Pigeons and their Colours, Common Ailments and Pigeon Showing. 328 pages hard back. Illustrated in black and white with to colour plates of 16 different breeds. New edition.		£24.00	£3.10
THE WEST OF ENGLAND FLYING TUMBLER By Jeffrey Oldham The origin, history and development of one of our native flying breeds is explained, as well as type, markings and colours. Breeding, management, judging and showing is also included. 90 pages, limp back. B/W illus and diagrams		£12.00	85p
POPULAR FANCY PIGEONS By Joseph Batty A guide to popular breeds of fancy pigeons many of which have been bred by the author. Includes breeding, feeding, housing and pigeon ailments. 124 A5 pages soft back. B/W diagrams.		£12.00	85p
KEEPING FANTAIL PIGEONS By Jacob Barrett Follows the Garden Fantail from evolution through the different varieties to breeding, moulting and general management. Well illustrated in black and white with diagrams on housing. 80 pages A5. Soft back.		£12.00	85p
COMMERCIAL PIGEON BREEDING &amp; REARING By J Barnes Squab raising for gourmet food; extremely popular in the USA and some other countries. This book explains the essentials but also covers the management of all types of domesticated pigeon including feeding, training and showing. 105 pages, limp back.		£12.00	85p
OLD &amp; RARE BREEDS OF POULTRY By Dr Joseph Batty With the resurgence of free range poultry, this book looks at the possibilities for poultry farmers, smallholders and garden poultry keepers. Covers about 60 different breeds as well as a few pioneers in the poultry world. Large format, well illustrated in colour (80 pages) and mono. An ideal present for Christmas 208 pages paperback.		£20.00	£3.36
LEWIS WRIGHT &amp; HIS POULTRY By Joseph Batty Sets out to acknowledge the work of Lewis Wright the great Victorian poultry expert who paved the way for the present-day poultry standards. His Illustrated Book of Poultry now sells for a very large price. This book includes 80 full-sized colour plates by J W Ludlow as well as many other illustrations and a summary of the breeds covered by Lewis Wright. 134 A4 pages, soft back.		£24.00	£4.00
POULTRY HOUSES &amp; APPLIANCES - A DIY GUIDE Covers all the essentials of making sheds and houses for poultry, as well as useful appliances such as food containers and brooders. 160 pages, limp back.		£9.50	£1.30

ROLLER &amp; TUMBLER PIGEONS By Joseph Batty Examining performing pigeons which roll or tumble and are often involved in competitions. Includes Birmingham Rollers, West of England and Flying Tiplers. Also a section on pigeon management. Over 100 pages, line drawings and diagrams mainly in mono.		£12.00	85p
ARTIFICIAL INCUBATION &amp; REARING By Joseph Batty Development of incubation methods and the necessary requirements for achieving maximum results. A good grounding for poultry fanciers and students. 184 pages with 16 full colour plates. Hard back.		£18.00	£1.75
PRACTICAL POULTRY KEEPING By Dr. Joseph Batty, Chairman of World Bantam &amp; Poultry Society 11th Revised edition giving more emphasis on recommended methods of management and phasing out of battery cages.. All main types of poultry are covered including layers, table birds, ducks, geese, turkeys and guinea fowl. Paper back, 206 pages with 16 in colour.		£15.00	£1.48
GLOSTER CANARY &amp; CANARY MANAGEMENT By James Blake Traces the history back to the Canary Isles in the 1920s and how the Gloster Canary evolved from the wild canaries. Explains how canaries can be kept, bred, managed and shown. 128 pages paper back.		£12.00	85p
PEKIN BANTAMS By Margaret Gregson A delightful breed, known as a True Bantam, ideal for youngsters and newcomers the fancy as well as the more experienced breeders. The author, a very successful breeder herself, traces the history of Pekins from when they were first brought over from China, with sections on breeding, management and feeding. Paper back. 136 pages plus 16 pages in full colour.		£15.00	85p
OLD ENGLISH GAME COLOUR GUIDE By Dr. J. Batty, Past President, Old English Game Club The large range of colours in OEG is often confusing and the author describes each bird and gets to the colour essentials. Illustrated in full colour throughout, it offers a guide both to the novice and experienced fancier. Hard back. 128 pages A5 format. Price plus P&amp;P.		£24.00	£1.30
SPEAKING PARROTS &amp; THEIR MANAGEMENT By Dr. Karl Russ Revised by James Blake Considers all the main species and their possible ability to talk. How to tame a parrot and encourage it to speak is explained in detail with the emphasis always on the correct treatment coupled with kindness. Paper back. 184 pages, illustrated in black and white with coloured front cover.		£15.00	£1.14
NORFOLK GREY POULTRY By Dr. Joseph Batty History and development and the present Standard requirements of this breed which is presently undergoing a revival. Illustrated throughout with a colour section and includes general poultry management. 84 pages, soft back.		£15.00	85p
LANGSHAN FOWLS By Dr Joseph Batty Originated in China and named after Major Croad who imported them, the book explains the development of the different varieties and their management. 100 pages soft back with colour illustrations.		£15.00	95p
PEAFOWL OF THE WORLD By Josef Bergman and Joseph Batty Covers the species of Peafowl, explains the differences and how to keep and breed them. 114 pages A4 hardback, with colour illustrations.		£28.00	£3.30
CALL DUCKS &amp; DUCK MANAGEMENT By Joseph Batty Covers all the essentials with a section on general duck management. 120 pages, soft back.		£12.00	95p
BANTAMS Breeds &amp; Management Dr Joseph Batty A revived concise guide to breeding, rearing, general management and showing Bantams. 100 pages with colour and black and white illustrations.		£9.50	85p
POULTRY FOODS &amp; FEEDING By Dr Joseph Batty Explains the need for the correct feeding of the various classes of poultry and their differing requirements. 160 pages, soft back.		£18.00	95p
PLYMOUTH ROCK POULTRY By Dr Joseph Batty. Examines each variety and how to achieve show standard, single and double mating and the make up of breeding pens. Illustrated throughout including many in colour, an extensive study of the breed with foreword by Robin Ramus, Club Secretary. 174 pages A4 hardback.		£24.00	£2.20

POULTRY FOR THE GARDEN By David C Bland First published in 1976 it remains a best seller. It provides the reader with the basic facts to successfully keep small numbers of chicken. This new revised edition now includes Rearing Chicken, Ducks and Geese from the day-old stage. Can be personally autographed if required.		Price £4.99 includes P&P.
PRACTICAL POULTRY KEEPING By David C Bland First published in 1996 and has been reprinted several times due to its popularity. Peter Day, ex-Chief Pig and Poultry Adviser for Defra writes 'David makes a lifetime of practical experiences available to readers. Be they hobbyists or small-scale commercial farmers, they will benefit from his accumulated expertise. Other books concentrate on free range methods, but here the author gives the reader a choice of several alternatives. Includes the main poultry diseases and common ailments.' Hard Back 160 pages. Illustrated throughout in mono. Can be personally autographed if required.		Price £16.95 includin g P&P.
TURKEYS, A GUIDE TO MANAGEMENT By David C Bland First published in 2000. In the foreword by David Spackman NDP, BVSc, MRCVS, he says: 'Following his highly successful earlier 'Practical Poultry Keeping', David has drawn on his years of practical experience, from breeding through to the delivery of the final product, to offer the same valuable assistance in easy to follow language. This publication will be of use to enthusiasts throught the world.' All the main Turkey diseases are discussed. Can be personally autographed if required.		Price £12.25 inc P&P.
INDIAN RUNNER DUCKS By Dr Joseph Batty History and Management of this quaint breed of ducks, which are excellent layers. 72 pages, soft back.		Price £12 plus £1.10 P&P (UK).

CHILDREN'S BOOKS
The Adventures of Eddie - an Extra Special Pigeon. Hardback		£9.99	£1.60
The Latest Adventures of Eddie - a Famous Pigeon goes to France. Hardback		£11.99	£1.85
Eddie goes to Hollywood - a Famous Pigeon in America. Hardback		£9.99	£1.60
Order total

Please send books to:

Name _____

Address _____

_____

_____

_____

E-mail _____

Telephone number in case we need to ask you about this order : _____

I enclose cheque/Postal Order for the amount of £
 Credit card payment accepted, please give number and expiry date (plus issue number or start date if Switch)

Credit card No _____

Exp. Date _____ Issue No./Start date _____

Signature .....

Please note: Postage rates shown are for the UK only – please enquire for Europe and other countries